

Business Consultant

We have requirements for Maximo Consultants to work on implementation, integration, enhancement projects. To work within a team on clearly defined tasks and receive support and mentoring from other team members.

Successful candidates will have up to 18 months experience in product support or consulting. Previous experience working with Work and Asset Management systems is preferable.

Duties include

- Working as part of a team on mid to large size product implementations.
- Assist in analysing customer business requirements and application objectives.

Duties also include serving as entry-level pre- and post-sales technical support specialist as needed and liaison between company and its customers.

Possess industry knowledge in one of the following industries:

- Utilities
- Transportation
- Process Manufacturing
- Discrete Manufacturing
- Process Petrochemical
- FM

Additional training may be required to fulfil the basic responsibilities of the job.

Good interpersonal skills to work as a team member and as a liaison with customers.

Technical skills:

- Proficient PC skills
- Proficient with all aspects of MAXIMO
- Preferable to have knowledge of SQR, HTML, JSP, Java/J2EE, App Servers, DLL, Brio, Crystal and Actuate Reports, and other consulting tools
- General knowledge of Oracle and SQLServer database platforms

Degree in business, marketing, engineering, or computer science, or equivalent experience

Extensive travel required (80%-90%) as duties are usually performed at the customer site.