

Senior Business Consultant

We have requirements for Senior Maximo Consultants to work on implementation, integration, enhancement projects.

Successful candidates will have four to five years experience in software development, technical support, or consulting.

Experience working with Work and Asset Management systems is essential.

Duties include

- Analyse customer business requirements and application objectives.
- Develop configuration design and functional specifications to meet customer needs. Participate in periodic status checks with customers and team to assess progress against plan.
- May serve as a project lead consultant on some of the client projects.

Duties also include pre- and post-sales technical support as needed and liaison between Vetasi and its customers.

Possess industry knowledge in one of the following industries:

- Utilities
- Transportation
- Process Manufacturing
- Discrete Manufacturing
- Process Petrochemical
- FM

Good interpersonal skills to work as a team member and as a liaison with customers

Technical skills:

- Proficient PC skills
- Proficient with all aspects of MAXIMO and preferable to have knowledge of
- SQR, HTML, JSP, Java/J2EE, App Servers, DLL, Brio, Crystal and Actuate Reports, and other consulting tools
- General knowledge of Oracle and SQLServer database platforms

Degree in business, marketing, engineering, or computer science, or equivalent industrial experience

Extensive travel required (80%-90%) as duties are usually performed at the customer site